

Dumbarton Oaks

Program Information
Program Name	Dumbarton Oaks
General Description / Special Programs	The research program includes scholarly meetings (an annual symposium and smaller specialized gatherings), project grants, fellowships, publications, and related activities.
Established
Country	UNITED STATES
State	DC
City	Washington
Address Line 1	1703 32nd St NW
Address Line 2
Address Line 3
Zip	20007
Fax	(202)625-0284
Phone1	(202)339-6440
Phone2
Email1	pre-columbian@doaks.org
Email2
Email3
Website	http://www.doaks.org

Program Details

Support Opportunities	Short-term pre-doctoral residencies available to advanced graduate students.
Library Resources	The Library holds some 36,500 books and journals covering the Pre-Columbian and early colonial cultures of Mexico, Central America, and South America.
Internships Available
Internship Required
Publications	Dumbarton Oaks has published over 90 titles in Pre-Columbian Studies through its conference and monograph series. Catalogues of the collection have also been produced, as have several miscellaneous publications. A number of these books are available at no charge online.
Collections	Dumbarton Oaks Research Library and Collections offers facilities for scholars, including private studies and residential accommodations for fellows. In addition to the Library, scholars have access to the Robert Woods Bliss Collection of Pre-Columbian Art (c. 700 objects, primarily from Mesoamerica, the Intermediate Area, and the Andes), and the Photograph and Fieldwork Archives (images of Pre-Columbian objects, archaeological sites, architecture, monuments, and other holdings).
Grants Or Funding	In addition to staff, the Pre-Columbian Studies program includes a community of scholars for time periods ranging from one month to an academic year. Information on fellowships, grants, and other forms of support is available online: www.doaks.org/research/
Certs Offered

