

University of the Sciences

Program Information

Program Name	University of the Sciences
General Description / Special Programs	Requirements for Minor in Medical Anthropology: 18 credits beyond the prerequisite course (21 credits total). Required courses: AN-310 Medical Anthropology, SS-400 Qualitative Research Methods for Social Sciences, AN-498 Directed Research, and one upper level (300 and above) World Cultures Course + 6 elective credits with a common intellectual bond approved by the minor advisor. Requirements for Forensic Sciences Minor: Requirements for Minor in Forensic Science: 18 credits beyond the prerequisite course (21 credits total). Required courses: FS-201 Forensic Analysis I, SO304/FS304 Crime and Society, One of (3-4 Credits)CH361 Analytical Chemistry, CH341 Molecular Structure in Biochemistry, or CH346 Biochemistry Electives (9-10 credits) FS202 Forensic Anthropology, FS376 Instrumental Analysis, FS410 Principles of Forensic Pathology, FS347 Forensic Applied Microbiology, FS476 Forensic Molecular Genetics (among others).
Established
Country	UNITED STATES
State	PA
City	Philadelphia
Address Line 1	600 S 43rd St
Address Line 2	Department of Behavioral and Social Sciences
Address Line 3
Zip	19104
Fax
Phone1
Phone2
Email1
Email2
Email3
Website	http://www.usciences.edu/academics/collegesdepts/socialsciences

Program Details

Degrees Offered	The University of the Sciences offers Minors in Medical Anthropology in the Department of Behavioral and Social Sciences, and Forensic Science in the Misher College of Arts and Sciences.
Highest Degree Offered	Other
Other Degree Requirements	See the USciences website for the various health science degrees offered at both the undergraduate and graduate levels.
Certificates	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Forensics</li></ul>
Library Resources	J.W. England Library
Internships Available
Internship Required
Certs Offered

