

Archaeology Southwest

Program Information
Program Name	Archaeology Southwest
General Description / Special Programs	Archaeology Southwest is a private, nonprofit preservation archaeology organization that uses research, education, and partnership programs to achieve long-term preservation of cultural resources throughout the American Southwest and Mexican Northwest. Regions of focus include southeastern Arizona, the Middle San Juan region of northwestern New Mexico, the Upper Little Colorado of northeastern Arizona, and the Upper Gila Valley in New Mexico. A conservation easement program provides permanent protection to sites on private lands.
Established
Country	UNITED STATES
State	AZ
City	Tucson
Address Line 1	300 N Ash Alley
Address Line 2
Address Line 3
Zip	85701
Fax	(520) 882-6948
Phone1	(520) 882-6946
Phone2
Email1	info@archaeologysouthwest.org
Email2
Email3
Website	http://www.archaeologysouthwest.org

Program Details

Experience Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Field Work• Internship
Support Opportunities	Preservation Fellowship: This endowed fellowship provides three years of financial support to qualified doctoral students. Occasional internships are available to qualified graduate and undergraduate students.
Internships Available
Internship Info	Preservation Fellowship: This endowed fellowship provides three years of financial support to qualified doctoral students. Occasional internships are available to qualified graduate and undergraduate students.
Internship Required
Publications	Research results are published through Technical Reports and Anthropological Papers. Archaeology Southwest publishes Archaeology Southwest Magazine, a quarterly publication. A list of publications is posted on the organization's web site.
Certs Offered

