

Illinois State Museum

Program Information

Program Name	Illinois State Museum
General Description / Special Programs	Landscape History Program: A multidisciplinary program that integrates staff and adjunct archaeologists, botanists, geologists, paleontologists, and zoologists involved in wide-ranging research topics concerning late Pleistocene and Holocene climate, landscape evolution, plant and animal communities, and human adaptation.
Established
Country	UNITED STATES
State	IL
City	Springfield
Address Line 1	502 South Spring Street
Address Line 2
Address Line 3
Zip	62706-5000
Fax	(217) 785-2857
Phone1	(217) 782-7475
Phone2
Email1	tmartin@museum.state.il.us
Email2
Email3
Website	http://www.museum.state.il.us

Program Details

Experience Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Internship
Research Facilities	The Research and Collections Center in Springfield has facilities for archeology, ethnobotany, archaeobotany, palynology, zooarchaeology, vertebrate paleontology, archaeomagnetic dating, state archaeological site files, and specialized computer facilities for Geographic Information System applications. ISM Dickson Mounds Museum (Lewiston, IL) has laboratory facilities and collections for the central Illinois River Valley.
Library Resources	The museum library has over 30,000 volumes and periodicals including works on anthropology and the natural sciences
Internships Available
Internship Info	R. Bruce McMillan Museum Internship
Internship Required
Publications	Scientific Papers, Reports of Investigations, Research Series, Dickson Mounds Museum Anthropological Studies, The Living Museum
Collections	Midwestern archeological collections emphasizing major Illinois sites, North American ethnographic materials especially western basketry, F. Louis Hoover African Art Collection, historical photographs of 1930s Midwestern archaeology. Large supporting collections: vertebrate skeletons, freshwater mussels, vertebrate paleontology, botany, palynology.
Certs Offered

