VISITOR INFORMATION

- Free admission, donations gratefully accepted.
- Hours: Tuesday–Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
  Closed Sundays, Mondays, and major holidays.
  Call ahead for hours during University breaks.
- Please call in advance for group tours.
- Handicap accessible.

Directions

From Business I-40 East, take the Silas Creek Pkwy North exit, then exit at Wake Forest University. Continue straight across Reynolda Road onto campus. Take a left at the first stop sign. Continue around the main campus until you reach a stop light. Take a left. At the bottom of the hill, past Kentner Stadium, take the next right. The Museum is behind the yellow farmhouse on the right.

From Business I-40 West, take the Cherry Street exit and continue North through downtown. Cherry Street turns into University Pkwy. Stay to the left on University Pkwy after you pass the Coliseum. Turn left into Wake Forest University. Take your first left at the bottom of the hill. The Museum is behind the yellow farmhouse on the right.
Discover North Carolina’s only museum dedicated to the study of global cultures. Artifacts from the Americas, Africa, Asia, and Oceania illustrate the story of humanity past and present. Learn about people from around the world through their everyday objects, ceremonial artifacts, and visual arts.

EXPLORE
- Intimate and immersive exhibitions
- Changing exhibits highlighting the Museum’s diverse collections
- Hands-on activities for all ages

INVESTIGATE
- Nearly 30,000 archaeological and ethnographic artifacts
- Objects from more than 90 countries and 350 cultures
- Online artifact database at http://moawfu.pastperfectonline.com/

EXPERIENCE
- Scholarly lectures and discussions
- Performances and films
- Craft workshops for all ages
- Culturally-themed open houses
- Summer programs for children and teens
- Curriculum-based education programs for grades K–12
- Hands-on outreach kits

SUPPORT
- MOA Friends membership program sponsoring exhibits, programs, and collections care
- Project-specific annual fundraising campaigns