

Cranbrook Institute of Science

Program Information

| | |
|--|--|
| Program Name | Cranbrook Institute of Science |
| General Description / Special Programs | Classes: Through institute's Education department; Instruction in Museology Independent study projects |
| Established | |
| Country | UNITED STATES |
| State | MI |
| City | Bloomfield Hills |
| Address Line 1 | PO Box 801 |
| Address Line 2 | 39221 Woodward Ave |
| Address Line 3 | |
| Zip | 48303-0801 |
| Fax | (248) 645-3050 |
| Phone1 | (248) 645-3261 |
| Phone2 | |
| Email1 | mstafford@cranbrook.edu |
| Email2 | |
| Email3 | |
| Website | http://www.cranbrook.edu |

Program Details

| | |
|-----------------------|--|
| Experience Offered | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Internship |
| Research Facilities | Collections: ca 30,000 artifacts in worldwide ethnographic and archaeological collections; particularly strong in Great Lakes historic and prehistoric materials. Facilities for Visiting Scholars: Workspace arranged by appointment; total work areas for analysis encompass approximately 3000 sq ft. Additional work areas and collections include paleontology, zoology and mineralogy. |
| Internships Available | |
| Internship Info | Internships: Independent study arranged through local universities. |
| Internship Required | |
| Publications | The Institute publishes a Bulletin series covering a wide range of topics as well as occasional monographs and books in the natural and social sciences |

