

San Diego Museum of Man

Program Information

Program Name	San Diego Museum of Man
General Description / Special Programs	The San Diego Museum of Man is a cultural and physical anthropology museum. We collect, preserve, interpret, and communicate evidence of human development, creativity, and artistic expression. It's all about people.
Established
Country	UNITED STATES
State	CA
City	San Diego
Address Line 1	1350 El Prado
Address Line 2	Balboa Park
Address Line 3
Zip	92101
Fax	(619) 239-2749
Phone1	(619) 239-2001
Phone2
Email1	mail@museumofman.org
Email2
Email3
Website	http://www.museumofman.org

Program Details

Research Facilities	Over 100,000 objects and 50,000 photographs, with emphasis on Western Americas: Southern California archaeology; Southwest ethnography, Mexico, Guatemala, Ecuador, Peru, Bolivia, and Chile; human paleopathology from Peru; weapons; ancient Egyptian artifacts from Amarna. Facilities for researchers.
Library Resources	The Museum's Scientific Library collection consists of over 30,000 volumes of interest to the global anthropology research community. The majority of these volumes are in the form of scholarly journals and bulletins.
Internships Available
Internship Required
Publications	San Diego Museum of Man Papers: Rock Art Papers; Latin American Symposium Papers
Misc Information	Museum offerings include: guided tours for students and adults; children's summer classes; curatorial seminars; cooperative special programs with area universities and museums; teacher training; Research Associates Program. Permanent Exhibitions: Footsteps Through Time: Four Million Years of Human Evolution; Mayan Civilization; Kumeyaay Culture; Ancient Egypt.

