Program Information

Program Name	CUNY - Hunter College
General Description / Special Programs	Anthropology has been taught at Hunter College since 1905. This four-field department provides courses to some 5000 students per year. We offer the Baccalaureate and Master's degrees at Hunter, and are a major component of the consortial PhD Program of the CUNY Graduate Center. Undergraduate programs are available in the day and evening, and we are unique in The City of New York in offering a full Master's course of study in evening hours.
