Cedar Valley College is a two-year community college. In anthropology, the following courses are offered in an ongoing program: Intro Anthropology, Intro Cultural Anthropology, Intro Archaeology, and Intro Physical Anthropology. The purpose of these courses is to provide transfer credit and to offer students a firm foundation, should they decide to major in anthropology at university level.
Program Details

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Degrees Offered</th>
<th>Associates of Arts and Science; Certification Programs</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Highest Degree Offered</td>
<td>AA/AS</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Other Degree Requirements

Associate Degrees are awarded upon completion of basic undergraduate course requirements. Cedar Valley College offers a two year direct transfer guarantee with a variety of four year universities in the region. A new AA Degree in Forensic Studies, including Anthropology will be available Fall, 2008.

- Anthropology
- Archaeology
- Biological Anthropology
- Cultural Anthropology

Associates

- Anthropology
- Archaeology
- Biological Anthropology
- Cultural Anthropology

Support Opportunities

Anthropology and sociology are linked with the history department, especially in courses involving World Civilization.

Library Resources

The Cedar Valley College Library, as part of the Dallas County Community College District, not only has a strong set of holdings in its local stacks, but has access to an excellent array of holding district wide. Cedar Valley College offers strong support for search engines and research sources.

Internships Available

Internship Required

Certs Offered