

Merritt Museum of Anthropology

Program Information

Program Name	Merritt Museum of Anthropology
General Description / Special Programs	The Merritt Museum of Anthropology, founded by Maurice Wolfe in 1973, is a hands on teaching museum. It was created to benefit both the students and the community. Student inspired and student/teacher prepared, the Museum offers glimpses into other cultures and other eras.
Established
Country	UNITED STATES
State	CA
City	Oakland
Address Line 1	12500 Campus Dr
Address Line 2
Address Line 3
Zip	94619
Fax	(415) 922-0905
Phone1	(510) 436-2607
Phone2
Email1	bjoans@merritt.edu
Email2
Email3
Website

Program Details

Experience Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Internship
Internships Available
Internship Info	Internships Available
Internship Required
Publications	Annual Report, yearly programs, Occasional Papers
Collections	Artifacts from all over the world, including material from Africa, Asia, EurAsia, Europe, North and South America (including Alaska), New Guinea and the Pacific Islands. The Museum is committed to creating exhibits and projects that highlight Oakland in all its rich historical diversity and contemporary vitality
Certs Offered

