

The Amerind Foundation, Inc

Program Information

Program Name	The Amerind Foundation, Inc
General Description / Special Programs	Archaeological and anthropological research; Advanced Seminar Program; Visiting Scholar Program; Native Arts Program; Internships in archaeology and museum studies; museum volunteer and docent programs
Established
Country	UNITED STATES
State	AZ
City	Dragoon
Address Line 1	2100 N Amerind Rd
Address Line 2	PO Box 400
Address Line 3
Zip	85609
Fax	(520) 586-4679
Phone1	(520) 586-3666
Phone2
Email1	amerind@amerind.org
Email2
Email3
Website	http://www.amerind.org

Program Details

Experience Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Internship
Research Facilities	Facilities for visiting scholars, advanced seminars, research, workshops, etc.
Support Opportunities	The Amerind Foundation provides support for Advanced Seminars and Resident Scholars; contact the Director for details.
Library Resources	Anthropological Research Library: 28,000 volumes emphasizing New World archeology, ethnology, history and art, non-circulating; archaeological archives.
Internships Available
Internship Info	Internships in archaeology and museum studies
Internship Required
Publications	Amerind Foundation Technical Reports, Amerind New World Studies Series, Amerind Studies in Archaeology (University of Arizona Press, ongoing), periodic Museum Catalogs and other special publications
Collections	Archeological and ethnographic collections of the Americas (over 30,000 objects) including extensive Southwest, Plains and northern Mexico materials; Spanish Colonial religious art and furniture (500 objects); American Indian and Anglo art (400 objects); archeological study collections (over 50,000 objects); archeology site files primarily Southern Southwest and northern Mexico; photographic collections (over 10,000 images).
Certs Offered

