

Museum of Native American History

Program Information

Program Name	Museum of Native American History
General Description / Special Programs	The Museum of Native American History is a non-profit, privately owned museum in northwestern Arkansas. The mission of the museum is to educate the public on the Native American way of life and their history, as shown through the artifacts they left behind. The museum is divided into five different time periods, all laid out chronologically-- From the first Americans all the way into historic times, visitors are guided through the constantly changing lives of Native Americans. Visit the museum and witness first hand some of the finest treasures created by America's earliest craftsmen. Hours: Monday - Saturday 9:00am - 5:00pm Admission is Free.
